

AP CAPSTONE OVERVIEW

What is the AP Capstone Program?

AP Capstone™ is a diploma program from the College Board based on two yearlong AP courses:

- * AP Seminar and AP Research

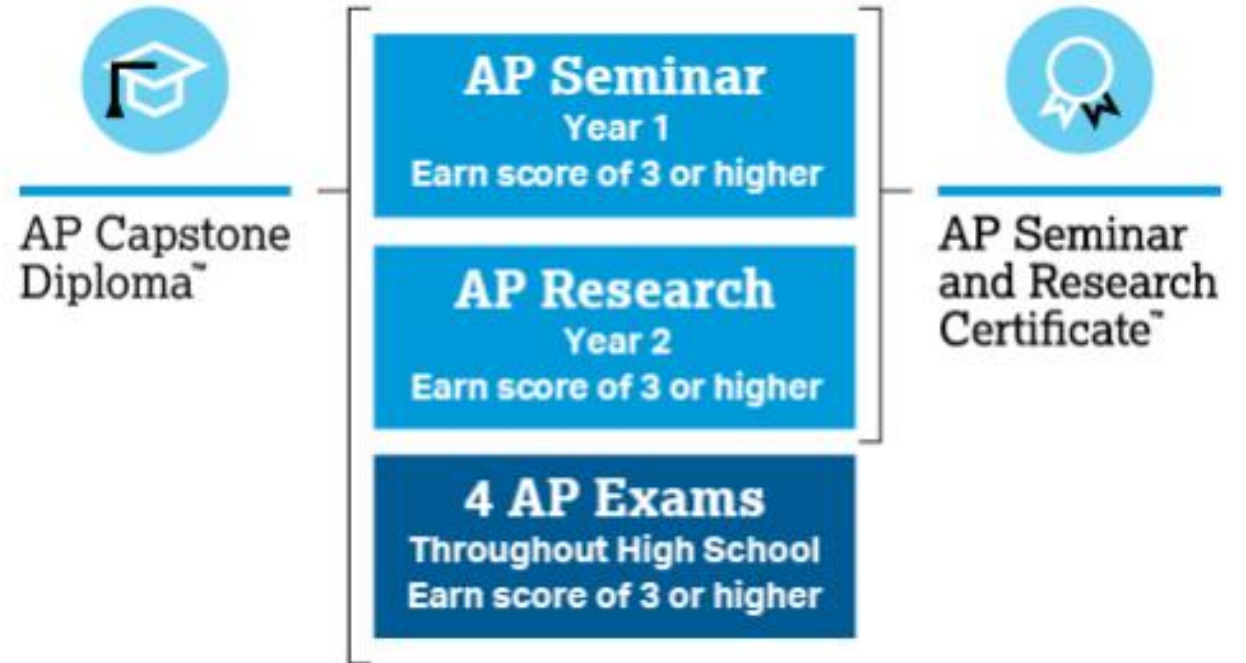

Students who complete the two-year program can earn one of two different AP Capstone awards, which are valued by colleges across the United States and around the world.

THE COMMON
APPLICATION

A screenshot of the Common Application profile for Holly Jacobson, a senior at Westwood High School. The interface includes tabs for Profile, Students, Workspace, and Resources. The left sidebar lists report types: School Report (selected), Counselor Recommendation, Optional Report, Mid Year Report, and Final Report. The main content area shows the Curriculum section, which includes fields for Class Rank, GPA, and a dropdown for course selection. Below these are three questions with radio button options: 'Is the applicant an IB Diploma Candidate?', 'Is the applicant an Advanced Cambridge (AICE) Diploma Candidate?', and 'Is the applicant an AP Capstone candidate?'. The 'AP Capstone candidate?' question is circled in green. At the bottom right of the form, there are 'Review and Submit' and 'Preview' buttons.

"Thank you so much for all of the time both of you have put into the program - many of the opportunities I am getting now are because of what I had done during my time in AP Seminar and AP Research."

"Last semester, I joined a Psychology research team on campus and I think the primary reason my application even passed the first round to an interview offer was my AP Capstone experience."
